

S.U.C.C.E.S.S Walk with the Dragon – Vancouver, BC

On July 20, 2008, 13,000 participants took part in a walk around Stanley Park in Vancouver, BC. Many gathered at Lumbermen's Arch to watch shows and performances on the big stage as well as visit booths of sponsors and businesses. Dan-D-Pak featured a game wheel with various prizes and handed out Dragon Boat Mix samples. This event is an annual tradition, which was established in 1986. Every year thousands of attendees participate and support S.U.C.C.E.S.S. by raising funds and collecting pledges.

S.U.C.C.E.S.S. is a Canadian immigration and social service agency. They provide a full range of services to help immigrants with the process of moving to Canada and encourage participation. Services include employment, social, business and economic development, training and education, health, and advocacy. For more information about S.U.C.C.E.S.S., visit their website at www.successbc.ca
